

Engineering and Physical Sciences
Research Council

EPSRC public engagement awards workshops
Magna, Sheffield
20 January 2009

| TIME | SESSION | |
|-------|--|--|
| 10.00 | Coffee and registration | |
| 10.20 | Welcome and introduction Alice Taylor-Gee, British Science Association Structured networking | |
| 11.10 | Motivations and audiences for public engagement Paul McCrory, EPSRC public engagement mentor | |
| 11.30 | Why EPSRC fund public engagement Kate Miller, EPSRC | |
| 11.50 | How I got started in public engagement and how I juggle my commitments Peter Styring, University of Sheffield Interviewed by Richard Hammond, EPSRC public engagement mentor | |
| 12.30 | Lunch and individual surgeries with EPSRC & mentors | |
| 13.15 | Inexperienced group | Experienced group |
| | Public engagement opportunities Introduction by Kate Miller, EPSRC Inspiration from current practitioners Susan Cartwright & Dorothy Ker, University of Sheffield Facilitated by Paul McCrory, EPSRC public engagement mentor | Sharing best practice Structured critiquing of and building on individuals' projects Facilitated by Richard Hammond, EPSRC public engagement mentor |
| 14.15 | Tea and coffee | |
| 14.30 | A review and critique of PPE applications Group work | |
| 15.45 | Local networks and partnerships Find out about public engagement specialists already working in your local area | |
| 16.15 | Wine and nibbles | |
| 17.00 | Farewell | |