

Engineering and Physical Sciences
Research Council

EPSRC public engagement awards workshop
The Hub, Edinburgh
19 February 2009

TIME	SESSION
10.00	Coffee and registration
10.20	Welcome and introduction Alice Taylor-Gee, British Science Association  Structured networking
11.10	Motivations and audiences for public engagement Paul McCrory, EPSRC public engagement mentor
11.30	Why EPSRC fund public engagement Kate Miller, EPSRC
11.50	How I got started in public engagement and how I juggle my commitments Jane Magill, University of Glasgow Interviewed by Colin Johnson, EPSRC public engagement mentor
12.30	Lunch and individual surgeries with EPSRC &amp; mentors
13.15	Inexperienced group	Experienced group
	Public engagement opportunities Introduction by Kate Miller, EPSRC  Inspiration from current practitioners Judith Masthoff, University of Aberdeen & Kate Carter, Heriot-Watt University  Facilitated by Colin Johnson, EPSRC public engagement mentor	Sharing best practice Structured critiquing of and building on individuals' projects  Facilitated by Paul McCrory, EPSRC public engagement mentor
14.15	Tea and coffee
14.30	A review and critique of past applications Group work
15.45	Local networks and partnerships Sharing local tips, information and connections Sandy Smith, Regional Officer of South & Central Scotland, British Science Association
16.15	Wine and nibbles
17.00	Farewell	